A HOLY WEEK AWAITS YOU

by the Very Rev. Sam Candler, Dean of the Cathedral

This holy week of the year, maybe holier than any other, invites us to take a journey of several days. It is not just one sermon that makes Holy Week holy. It is not just one prayer. It is not just one piece of music. Rather, it is the very drama of Jesus's last days on earth that is re-enacted at the Cathedral.

We began this past Sunday, on Palm Sunday. After blessing palm branches in the labyrinth, we paraded up Peachtree Road around the front of the Cathedral, waving the branches and remembering Jesus's entrance into the holy city of Jerusalem. Yes, we treated it like a parade, welcoming and celebrating. Plus, it was actually great fun to walk together around the church! We witnessed the great progress of the Good Faith Chapel! But the Palm Sunday service took a sheer turn once we heard the gospel. On Palm Sunday, the Sunday of the Passion, the entire passion story of Jesus was read as the gospel. We were walking the way of Jesus.

This Thursday, April 17, is Maundy Thursday. The word "Maundy" is derived from a Latin word, "mandatum," meaning "commandment." This is the night, at the Last Supper, when Jesus gives his disciples a "new commandment," that we love one another. As Jesus stooped to wash the feet of his disciples on that night, so we, too, will take the time to wash another person's feet. At the Cathedral, we do not merely stage this re-enactment. We invite folks, voluntarily, during the service, to ask another person if they might wash his or her feet. (Wear clean socks, or no socks, on that night! Someone might ask to wash your feet.) The Maundy Thursday Liturgy continues with a Eucharist that commemorates the Last Supper; then, as the lights are dimmed, clergy and altar guild strip the altar, clearing the way for Good Friday. This is one of the most moving services of the year.

On Good Friday, of course, we solemnly remember the crucifixion itself. Once again, we hear the passion story read in its entirety. Good Friday is one of the only days of the year that we do not celebrate the Eucharist. Instead, the service is highlighted by the passion, by our prayers and petitions, and by the entrance of a large wooden cross at the end of the service. In silence, in music, and in prayers, we venerate the cross on that day.

Holy Saturday is another day that we do not celebrate the Eucharist. The body of Jesus is in the tomb on that day. But the activity around the Cathedral has become almost like a mini-Easter for me and the staff. I am in awe of the great gifts and talents that show up to rehearse and prepare for Easter Day. Musicians, flower guild folks, altar guild folks, acolytes, lectors, vergers, boy scouts (preparing the fire!) and all sorts, gather on Saturday for the great rehearsal. The preparation for Easter can be just as exciting as Easter itself!

Finally, of course, comes Easter Day. Every service is tremendous and overflowing with Easter energy; and we have a service going on at almost any time you arrive! But the grandest service, and the most dramatic, is the one that begins very early on Easter morning, during the dark, and before sunrise. Get up early and join us!

At 6:00 am, on Easter morning, we have lighted the huge Easter fire on the front lawn in the Horseshoe Drive, the place we walked through began seven days earlier. This time, we are completing the drama. We process the Paschal Candle in the dark nave, we sing the ancient and lovely Exultet, we hear the old stories of Creation, of the Red Sea Exodus, and of the Valley of Dry Bones. Then we baptize new Christians into this ancient mystery of creation, redemption, and new life.

Finally on Easter morning, we celebrate the Eucharist itself. The service is beautiful and life-giving, for sure. But Easter morning is really the last chapter of a drama that takes an entire week to complete. Our spirits are rewarded when we participate as fully as we can throughout Holy Week. When we have lived through Palm Sunday and Maundy Thursday and Good Friday, then we are prepared to know Easter in a way we might never have known Easter before.

Thus, Holy Week is the entire Christian story, lived out in prayer and procession, word and song, cross and sacrament, water and fire. May God gloriously bless us as we celebrate life!

Sam Candler

The Space Between Us

THE SPACE BETWEEN US

How Jesus Teaches Us to Live Together When Politics and Religion Pull Us Apart ~ An Evening with Sarah Bauer Anderson
Thursday, May 15, 6:30 p.m.

Sponsored by the Cathedral Bookstore and Georgia Braver Angels

In our polarizing times, faith, politics, and the media seem to be leading more to rage than actual change. But our faith calls us to be in relationship with one another! Sarah's book outlines many routes for navigating the space between us without abandoning our values.

A native of the greater Washington, D.C. area and a current resident of the Bible Belt, Sarah has spent her entire life learning to live in the tension both politics and religion create, and striving to learn how to best navigate the complicated issues and emotional conversations around these weightier topics. She is a writer and speaker, and currently lives in Roswell, Georgia with her husband and two boys.

Join us for this timely conversation on Thursday, May 15, at 6:30 p.m. at the Cathedral, followed by a book signing. The book may be purchased at the Cathedral Bookstore in advance and will also be available for purchase that night. Please register at cathedralATL.org/faithfulpolitics. There is no cost to attend, but we want to have enough chairs ready!

RESILIENCE: BEREAVEMENT WORKSHOP

Saturday, May 17

1:30 p.m.–5 p.m., Child Hall

Hospice Atlanta is hosting its 3rd Annual Resilience Bereavement Workshop on Saturday, May 17, from 1:30 p.m.–5 p.m. in Child Hall. This half-day event will help you discover the resilience within as you work through grief following the loss of a loved one. The event features speakers sharing personal stories of resilience in grief, and loss-specific group breakout session facilitated by trained bereavement professionals.

This is a free event, open to all adults working through the death of a loved one.

For questions and to register for Resilience 2025, please contact Paulette Slawson, Bereavement Coordinator at Hospice Atlanta: 404-527-6558 or Paulette.Slawson@vnhs.org.

Cathedral BOOKSTORE

The Cathedral Bookstore is looking for a second Assistant Manager. The ideal candidate will have prior retail and management experience. Knowledge of the Episcopal church and church supplies is a plus, but willingness to learn is a must. This is a part-time, on-site position consisting of 20 set hours, 5 days per week—with flexibility to work more hours during holidays, events, and as needed. This is an hourly non-exempt position without benefits. To apply, please send cover letter and resume to: info@cathedralbookstore.org. We will send the full position description in return.

**Please note that due to the high volume of interest, we will only contact those candidates whose experience best align with the requirements above.*

STEWARDSHIP

2025 STEWARDSHIP (AS OF 4/15/25)

THE GENEROSITY CONTINUES UNABATED!

The Beloved Community of the Cathedral of St. Philip continues to pledge strongly this year. On average, the pledges received to-date have increased more than 10% from the prior year—a remarkable indicator of the vibrancy of the parish. Of course, pledges of all sizes are crucial to meeting our budgeted needs for the year—most of those expenses are the clergy and lay staff that minister to the parish every day. Please join us in Growing Our Holy Community by joining your fellow ushers, guild members, teachers, acolytes, etc. in making a financial commitment to the Cathedral today. Use the card below or visit cathedralATL.org/pledge.

WORLD LABYRINTH DAY

Saturday, May 3, 1 p.m.

Every year on the first Saturday in May thousands of people around the world participate in World Labyrinth Day as a moving meditation for world peace and shared appreciation of the labyrinth experience. On this 17th annual World Labyrinth Day, as in previous years, many will walk a labyrinth at 1:00 p.m. creating a unified rolling wave of peaceful energy passing from one time zone to the next around the globe. Please join us at the Cathedral as we walk the sacred labyrinth on May 3.

EASTER FLOWERING OF THE CROSS

All are welcome to participate in this beloved tradition as the cross is brought to life with color and beauty as a living symbol of resurrection. Stop by and place a flower in the cross that will be set up in the Atrium on Easter Sunday, April 20. Bringing something from your own garden is a practice that is certainly welcome, and one that many find especially meaningful.
