The Opening Acclamation

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.

All The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

The Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

All sing.

The Song of Praise: Hymn 417

music: Festival Canticle, Richard Hillert (1923-2010) words: Revelation 5:12-13; adapt. John W. Arthur (1922-1980)

The Collect of the Day: Fourth Sunday of Easter

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lesson

Acts 9:36-43

Lector A Reading from The Acts of the Apostles.

Now in Joppa there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity. At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs. Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, "Please come to us without delay." So Peter got up and went with them; and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them. Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, "Tabitha, get up." Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive. This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. Meanwhile he stayed in Joppa for some time with a certain Simon, a tanner.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

At 8:45 a.m.: Children ages 3 (by September 1, 2024) through fifth grade may follow the acolytes and chapel leaders to Children's Chapel at this time. Children will return to the nave at the Offertory.

At 11:15 a.m., the choir sings

The Gradual: Psalm 23

Anglican chant: Charles Hylton Stewart (1884-1932)
BCP, p. 476

- 1 The LORD is my shepherd: *
therefore can I lack nothing.
- 2 He shall feed me in a green pasture * and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.
- 3 He shall convert my soul: *
and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness, for his Name's sake.
- 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: *
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff comfort me.
- 5 Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me: *
thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.
- 6 Surely thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: *
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

The Epistle

Revelation 7:9-17

Lector A Reading from The Revelation to John.

I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

“Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!”

And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

“Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” I said to him, “Sir, you are the one that knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

For this reason they are before the throne of God,
and worship him day and night within his temple,
and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;
for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Lector The Word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

All stand.

The Sequence: Hymn 204

music: Noël nouvelet, medieval French carol words: John Macleod Campbell Crum (1872-1958), alt.

1 Now the green blade ris - eth from the bur - ied grain,
2 In the grave they laid him, Love whom hate had slain,
3 Forth he came at Eas - ter, like the ris - en grain,

All remain standing.

The Holy Gospel

John 10:22-30

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to John.

All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

At that time the festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. So the Judeans gathered around him and said to him, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly." Jesus answered, "I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name testify to me; but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep. My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand. What my Father has given me is greater than all else, and no one can snatch it out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Nicene Creed

Celebrant With Christians across time and around the world, we say together the Nicene Creed.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

This Sunday's Prayers of the People were written by our youth.

Celebrant Let us stand or kneel to pray.
In peace, we pray to you, Lord God.

Intercessor We pray for the universal church;
that it may be a beacon of unity, compassion, and understanding in our complex world;
We pray for grace to prioritize the work of love, as we journey into a loving, liberating, and life-giving relationship with God, and God's creation.
We pray for the Episcopal Church, and for our bishops, clergy, lay leaders, and especially our youth on this day, that they will live into their Baptismal covenants.
Lord, in your mercy,
All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor We pray for the Cathedral community: for mothers, grandmothers, and those embodying maternal roles;
for watchful care over those traveling this summer near and far;
for our students and graduates that they may find clarity in their minds as they finish exams, and calmness to their spirit as they transition into the next chapter of their lives.
We offer special thanksgiving for our youth community and adult leaders, teachers, and volunteers.
Lord, in your mercy,
All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor We pray for this country and all in authority:
for Donald our president; for the Congress and the Courts; for Brian our governor;
and Andre our mayor, that they may govern with compassion and empathy.
We pray for those who defend our freedoms and uphold the values of liberty, democracy, and human dignity. That they may inspire us all to contribute to a world where kindness, respect, social justice, and peace prevail.
Lord, in your mercy,
All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor We pray for the welfare of the world:
for guidance to nurture and protect our earthly home, for those experiencing trauma, especially those affected by war, violence, homelessness, persecution, or oppression of any kind;
that God may bring comfort, healing, and restoration to all who suffer.
Lord, in your mercy,
All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor We pray for those who suffer from mental illness, addiction, physical ailment, disease, or financial insecurity. May God be a source of comfort and healing for all.
We pray for those on our Cathedral prayer list: Brice Bradshaw, Ellen Cordova, Leigh Eiger, Jane Jackson, Patricia Kasm, Andrew Pittman, The Reynolds Family, Art Vinson
Lord, in your mercy,
All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor We pray for all who have died, that they may see God's glory:
Kenya Anders, Steve Baker, Darrell Boyette, Bill Dixon, Patricia Flock, Nancy "Jan" Horner, Bernard Johnson, Tom Reynolds
We pray for Patti W. Hollis and for Augusta and Richard Horsey, in whose memory today's altar flowers are given.

The People may add further petitions.

All Lord, in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

Celebrant Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, "Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you." Regard not our sins, but the faith of your Church, and give to us the peace and unity of that heavenly City, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, now and for ever. Amen.

The Peace

The Celebrant says

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

All And also with you.

All greet one another in the name of the Lord.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Offertory

The Offertory Anthem music: William Mathias (1934-1992), As truly as God is our Father words: Julian of Norwich (1342-c. 1416)

As truly as God is our Father, so just as truly is he our Mother. In our Father, God Almighty, we have our being; in our merciful Mother we are remade and restored. Our fragmented lives are knit together. And by giving and yielding ourselves, through grace, to the Holy Spirit we are made whole. It is I, the strength and goodness of Fatherhood. It is I, the wisdom of Motherhood. It is I, the light and grace of holy love. It is I, the Trinity, it is I, the unity. I am the sovereign goodness in all things. It is I who teach you to love. It is I who teach you to desire. It is I who am the reward of all true desiring. All shall be well, and all shall be well, and all manner of thing shall be well. Amen.

All stand to sing.

The Presentation: Hymn 645

music: St. Columba, Irish melody words: Henry Williams Baker (1821-1877); para. of Psalm 23

1 The King of love my shep-herd is, whose good-ness
 2 Where streams of liv-ing wa-ter flow, my ran-somed
 3 Per-verse and fool-ish oft I strayed, but yet in 4 In death's dark vale I fear no ill with thee, dear

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A, The Book of Common Prayer (BCP), p. 361

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

All sing.

The Sanctus and Benedictus

setting: S-125, Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Blessed's the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -

san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

All stand or kneel.

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Wonder, Love & Praise 876 setting: Jack Warren Burnam (b. 1946)

Choir, then all.

Choir The bread which we break, Alleluia, is the communion of the Body of Christ.

All repeat the Antiphon.

The Communion

All may receive the consecrated bread and wine of the Eucharist. You may receive at the altar or at floor-level stations. Stand or kneel and receive the bread (a wafer) in the palm of your hand. Gluten-free wafers are available at all communion stations upon request. Receive the wine either by drinking from the cup (guiding it to your lips) or by touching the wafer lightly to the wine. If you desire to receive a blessing, cross your arms across your chest.

Communion Anthems

8:45 a.m. only music: Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958), O taste and see words: Psalm 34:8

O taste and see how gracious the Lord is: blest is the one that trusteth in Him.

8:45 a.m. and 11:15 a.m.

music: Matthew Owens (b. 1971), This joyful Eastertide
words: G.R. Woodward (1848-1934)

This joyful Eastertide,
Away with sin and sorrow!
My love, the Crucified,
Hath sprung to life this morrow.

Refrain:

*Had Christ, that once was slain,
Ne'er burst his three-day prison,
Our faith had been in vain:
But now hath Christ arisen.*

My flesh in hope shall rest,
And for a season slumber:
Till trump from east to west
Shall wake the dead in number.

Refrain

Death's flood hath lost his chill,
Since Jesus crossed the river:
Lover of souls, from ill
My passing soul deliver.

The Postcommunion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.
All Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you

CHILDREN

Children of all ages are welcome and encouraged to participate fully in our liturgy. For parents who prefer it, The Nurturing Center is open for children three and younger from 8:30 a.m. through the end of the 11:15 a.m. service each week.

Children's chapel takes place during the 8:45 a.m. service as an option for parents and children who are not yet ready to experience the full liturgy together, though children are always welcome in "big" church. Children three years (by September 1, 2024) through fifth grade begin in the nave, then follow the children's acolytes and leaders out at the sequence hymn. Children will return to the nave at the Offertory. Two and three-year-olds attend their own chapel service, which begins at 8:45 a.m.

Godly Play is our curriculum for children ages 3–5th grade. All Godly Play classes are mixed-age groupings. If you have not registered for Sunday School, your child will be placed in an appropriate class when you arrive on the Children's wing this morning. The doors to Godly Play will open at 10:00 a.m.

YOUTH PROGRAMS FOR GRADES 6-12

Sunday morning youth Sunday school is at 10:10 a.m. on the 3rd floor youth hallway.

Sunday evening EYC is at 6:00 p.m. on the youth hallway.

MUSIC

Sunday Afternoon Recitals

Today's 3:15 p.m. Cathedral recital is performed by Davis Badaszewski, who serves as the Kantor at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Shaker Heights, OH, and is a doctoral candidate in Organ Performance with a concentration in Musicology at the Cleveland Institute of Music (CIM). He will be performing works by Harold Friedell. Sunday Afternoon Recitals are held in the Cathedral and live online at cathedralATL.org/recitals, immediately preceding the 4:00 p.m. Evensong service.

ADULT EDUCATION

Godly Play Parents—Room 316

Godly Play Parents (GPP) is a Christian Formation class supporting parents of children led by Deacon Linda Rosengren and Canon David Boyd. For more information, please contact the Rev. Deacon Linda Rosengren (lrosengren@cathedralATL.org).

Living Faith—Room 239

Join us as we learn what it means to live out our faith through conversation with scripture and tradition, contemporary books, and, most importantly, one another. Beginning in February and continuing through the end of May, we'll be grounding our conversations in Jonathan Haidt's New York Times bestseller The Anxious Generation: How the Great Rewiring of Childhood is Causing an Epidemic of Mental Illness. Whether you are a parent, grandparent, or simply someone concerned about the welfare of others, you will find yourself engaged and challenged by the questions Haidt poses about the health of our society. A particular focus will be on what we, as a community of faith, can do to better support one another in our quest for less anxious, more joyful, living. The book is available for purchase in the Cathedral Bookstore. For more information, contact Canon Mitchener (julia.mitchener@cathedralATL.org, 404-365-1083).

Old Fashioned Sunday School: What do we believe?—Child Hall

In this series, Canon Maxwell leads a conversation about the central elements Christian faith as set forth in the Nicene and Apostles' Creeds. Using Rowan Williams' book, Tokens of Trust, Canon Maxwell will address questions like: What does it mean to believe in God? Can God possibly be almighty in the midst of so much evil and suffering? How am I to understand the meaning of Jesus Christ's ministry and resurrection? To what purpose is the church called? And what does it mean to follow Christ in today's broken world? Join us. We look forward to seeing you. As always, you will find a light heart, warm welcome, and good coffee. Recordings are available online after Sunday on the OFSS page (cathedralATL.org/OFSS). For more information, please contact Canon Maxwell (gmaxwell@cathedralATL.org, 404-365-1088).

Young Professionals Formation Hour – Room 368

Join the Young Professionals (adults in their 20s and 30s) as we share conversation exploring relevant topics about Christianity, our lives in faith, and spirituality in today's culture. Each week's class is supported by Canon Ashley Carr and members of the group. For more information contact Keith Dumke (kdumke@cathedralATL.org) or Canon Ashley Carr (ashley.carr@cathedralATL.org).

Enjoying Biblical Greek—Room 239 (1:15 p.m.)

Open to beginners, this class includes long-term members who use translation aids including lexicons and commentaries to enjoy how probing the Greek of New Testament texts adds nuance and depth to reading Holy Scripture. Join us in person or on Zoom. For more information, contact The Rev. Dr. Thee Smith (tsmith@cathedralATL.org, 404-365-1093).

MINISTRY OF THE DAY

Each week, the Cathedral community gives thanks for one of our many ministry groups. This Sunday, we give thanks for The Cathedral Youth Ministries and Volunteers. Youth Ministry at The Cathedral of St. Philip is part of our core identity and integral to our life of faith. The youth ministry exists to enable youth to participate in the fellowship and mission of the people of God through involvement in the whole life of the parish and through their peer groups. For more information about how to get involved, contact Keith Dumke (kdumke@cathedralATL.org, 404-365-1081).
