The Lenten Dean's Forum Will "Love Life"

The Cathedral of St. Philip will offer a variety of ways for parishioners and friends to observe a holy Lent this year. For instance, our dear friend, Luke Timothy Johnson will return on Wednesday evenings for a five-week series on the Book of James. For instance, the clergy of the Cathedral will be offering Quiet Days. For instance, you might want to join one of the weekly Bible studies and formation groups that Cathedral clergy and leaders offer throughout the year. Lent is an appropriate time to explore one of these ongoing groups.

During Lenten Sundays, I will use the "Dean's Forum" to present a faith exploration series, which uses video, put together by one of the Episcopal Church's monastic communities, the Society of St. John the Evangelist (SSJE). The series, titled "Love Life," uses the Gospel of John and short daily video clips to call us to deeper relationship and community with our world.

I have not seen the actual videos yet; but I do know something about, and I trust, the Society of St. John the Evangelist. The SSJE community originated in Oxford, England (parish of Cowley) in 1866, as the first stable religious community of men to be established in the Anglican Church after the Reformation. The order came over to Boston in 1870, where they live at a monastery in Cambridge.

When I lived in the Northeast, I participated in several of their retreats (they have a house in West Newbury, too), and I continue to be struck by their wisdom, service, and progressive faith. They follow a Rule of Life and describe their practice as "rooted in the ancient monastic traditions of prayer and community life", but also "critically engaged with contemporary culture." With this practice, they "seek to know and share an authentic experience of God's love and mercy" and to help others uncover "their deepest desires, live with authenticity, and discover their place in the heart of God." (you can read more at: <http://www.ssje.org/who.html#3>).

The series they are presenting for Lent 2014 is titled, "Love Life," and it is available for individuals or groups. So, even if you do not plan on attending the Lenten Dean's Forums, you might want to use the daily, downloaded, videos personally.

On Sundays, here is what I anticipate. We will gather in Child Hall, and watch the short weekly compilation video (one does not need to keep up during the week to participate in Sunday sessions!). Then, I will lead discussion on the assigned topics (from the Gospel of John) all of which seek to reveal something of Jesus and his call to us to be in relationship with the world.

Again, the Dean's Forum requires no advance preparation or homework! And I think it will be fun! But you can also participate in the program individually, reading and watching daily devotions, which the brothers encourage. You can find more information at www.ssje.org.

So, "Love Life" this Lent! The Sunday series will begin on the First Sunday of Lent, 9 March, 2014, at 10:10 a.m. in Child Hall.

THE DEAN'S FORUM

This Sunday, 2 March 2014, due to popular demand, the Dean's Forum will analyze still more of the songs and poetry of Leonard Cohen! The Dean's Forum meets at 10:10 a.m. in Child Hall.

OLD-FASHIONED SUNDAY SCHOOL (ROOM 133)

Do you wonder sometimes what Christians are supposed to believe? This term in the Old Fashioned Sunday School we will explore what the Apostles Creed has to say about the central beliefs of the Christian faith. But, we'll do it in a slightly different way than you may have experienced in the past. Each Sunday, we'll take one of the statements made in the ancient creed and reflect on it through the lens of a more contemporary work. Using David Cunningham's book, Reading is Believing, we'll draw on novels, plays, and films by authors like Dickens, Shakespeare, P. D. James, and Graham Greene to show how the Creed can create and sustain meaning in our lives. Join us. You'll learn about the creed, of course, but we also hope that you'll deepen your own faith in the process. You'll find a light heart and a broad welcome. The class will be led by Canon George Maxwell, Canon Beth Knowlton, and Mack Leath. We look forward to seeing you there.

MARRIAGE CONVERSATIONS (ROOM 121)

Join us for "Marriage Conversations," Sundays through March 30. This course will be an opportunity for couples to get to know each other and share ways to strengthen their marriage. ## Luke Timothy Johnson to Lead Lenten Series

PRACTICAL CHRISTIANITY: LETTERS FROM THE LETTER OF JAMES

Wednesdays: March 12, 19, 26 and April 2, 9 at 7 p.m. in Child Hall

Dr. Luke Timothy Johnson will lead a five-part Lenten series called Practical Christianity: Letters from the Letter of James. Possibly the earliest extant Christian composition, the Letter of James is a powerful witness to the Jesus movement in its first years, using the words of Jesus himself to shape its call to a life of integrity in the world. James does not make easy reading for comfortable believers. It uses strong language and it demands hard things of those who wish to follow Jesus, above all that faith be expressed in practical deeds. In this series of presentations, we will consider James' instruction on friendship with the world and friendship with God, on the evils of discrimination among rich and poor, on the power and peril of speech, and on the importance of forming a community of mutual care.

Luke is the Robert W. Woodruff Professor of New Testament and Christian Origins at the Candler School of Theology at Emory University. A former Benedictine monk, he has taught at Yale Divinity School and Indiana University. He is the author of more than 20 books, including The Real Jesus: The Misguided Quest for the Historical Jesus and the Truth of the Traditional Gospels, and The Writings of the New Testament: An Interpretation, which is used widely as a textbook. He has also published several hundred articles and reviews.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT HOLY EUCHARIST AND DINNER

Before going to Luke Timothy Johnson's presentations, please consider attending Holy Eucharist at 5:45 p.m. in Mikell Chapel and then having dinner in Child Hall.

THE EMILE FISHER CONCERT

On Saturday, March 29 at 7:30 p.m., Friends of Cathedral Music will present the Emile T. Fisher Concert, featuring performances by the Cathedral Choir and Schola of two twentieth-century choral masterworks: Gerald Finzi’s Lo, the Full, Final Sacrifice (1946), and Arvo Pärt’s Passio Domini Nostri Jesu Christi Secundum Joannem (1982).

Finzi’s extended anthem for choir and organ sets Richard Crashaw’s translations of Thomas Aquinas’s Eucharistic hymns “Adoro te devote” and “Lauda Sion salvatorem” to music that is harmonically lush and melodically exquisite. Pärt’s Passio, arguably the most important musical setting of the passion narrative since J.S. Bach, is by contrast stark and clean.

Five instrumentalists, six soloists, and choir recount the betrayal, trial, and crucifixion of Jesus simply and economically. Despite Passio’s mathematical precision—or, more accurately, because of it—this is music that is beautiful, contemplative, and profound, at times even overwhelming.

Tickets prices are: General Admission, $20 in advance and $25 day of concert; and Seniors and Students, $15 in advance and $20 day of concert. Tickets may be purchased prior to the day of the concert from the Cathedral Book Store at 404-237-7582. To purchase Patron Tickets, please contact the Cathedral Music Office at 404-365-1050 or gunter@stphilipscathedral.org.
