The Weekly Newsletter of the Cathedral of St. Philip, Serving the City and Diocese of Atlanta

April 27, 2014

John 20:19-31

The Great Sabbath Rest

On the Monday after Easter day, Easter Monday we call it, a couple of us crept silently into the empty Cathedral of St. Philip.

Our church offices were justifiably closed on that day, given the happy rigors of Holy Week and Easter. This year's Holy Week and Easter services were glorious; but, as always, they required much work and commitment—not just from the staff, but from the entire parish! Every year, all of us carve out time, and all of us volunteer resources, so that the Cathedral of St. Philip can observe Holy Week with honor.

Thus, we always take a Sabbath day on Easter Monday. “The Great Sabbath Rest,” is what I call it, following the verse from Hebrews 4:9, “There remains for the people of God a Sabbath rest!” Our offices are closed, and we do not even have a Monday worship service. Our faithful Cathedral parochial entities follow suit: the Preschool and the Bookstore are also closed.

As you can imagine, then, when a couple of us do show up on Easter Monday, we get a lot of uninterrupted office work done! I did so this week. And somehow that work was refreshing and restorative. It was restorative because I also took time on Easter Monday to pray in this beautiful space. Even at rest, this honorable building witnesses to the work and devotion of so many of God's faithful people. Even at rest, this building reflects the faces of saints. Even at rest, this building echoes with the prayers and music and tears and laughter of the people of God.

Easter was absolutely delightful this year. Thank you! Thanks to each of you who participated in our devotional routines. Some of you were present here almost every day. Others of you showed up just once, or even for just a few minutes. Others of you weren't here physically at all, but your prayers and generosity were.

Thank you for all those ways of being present. Each of those ways of being present is holy. The Cathedral of St. Philip took time to rest on Monday, a rest that enabled us to remember and to give thanks. As we heard at the Great Vigil on Easter morning, when we read Genesis, chapter one: Even God, our great and wondrous God, even God, takes a rest. Even God observes a Sabbath rest.

I hope you got some rest around Easter Day. I hope you took time simply to stop and to pray. I hope that prayer blossomed into gratitude and thankfulness.

THE DEAN'S FORUM

The Dean's Forum this Sunday will feature Dean Sam Candler presenting “The Art of the Resurrection.” He will summarize the resurrection stories from each of the four gospels, using classical and contemporary art. ### OLD-FASHIONED SUNDAY SCHOOL (ROOM 133)

Do you wonder sometimes what Christians are supposed to believe? This term in the Old Fashioned Sunday School we will explore what the Apostles Creed has to say about the central beliefs of the Christian faith. But, we'll do it in a slightly different way than you may have experienced in the past. Each Sunday, we'll take one of the statements made in the ancient creed and reflect on it through the lens of a more contemporary work. Using David Cunningham's book, Reading is Believing, we'll draw on novels, plays, and films by authors like Dickens, Shakespeare, P. D. James, and Graham Greene to show how the Creed can create and sustain meaning in our lives. Join us. You'll learn about the creed, of course, but we also hope that you'll deepen your own faith in the process. You'll find a light heart and a broad welcome. The class will be led by Canon George Maxwell, Canon Beth Knowlton, and Mack Leath. We look forward to seeing you there.

THE BOOK OF ISAIAH (ROOM 122)

It is the most quoted book of the Old Testament in the New Testament. Isaiah covers over two hundred years of Jewish history and its theological themes resonate with us all: guilt, punishment, judgment, restoration, salvation and hope. Please join us as we delve into the fascinating book of Isaiah. For more information, please contact Jim Bingham at 404-373-3273 or binghamjim@bellsouth.net or Gordon Mathis at 404-842-1595.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN (ECW)

Women's Habitat Build Day

Dear Women of the Cathedral,
I'm reaching out to you on behalf of the Cathedral's Episcopal Church Women (ECW). Some of you may not realize that you are a member of this group, but if you are a woman and member of the Cathedral—you're in! And as a member, you have a WONDERFUL opportunity to participate in a "Women's Build Day" for the Cathedral Habitat for Humanity home on Saturday, April 26. You'll work alongside fellow Cathedral ECW at-large and guild members to build a home for a deserving family. What a great way to build community among the women of the church while serving others!

Build activities will include finishing siding and caulking, painting the exterior and interior, maybe even installing some baseboard, window sills or interior trim. Never done this sort of thing before? Don't worry, neither have I! There will be helpers to guide us. Lunch is provided on the build site by the fabulous Cathedral Habitat Food Team.

We'll meet at 7:30 a.m. at Peachtree Battle Starbucks and carpool to the build site. The day will end around 4 p.m.

To participate in this special event, please click on the SIGN UP GENIUS link at stphilipscathedral.org/ecw. Come join us for this special day!

Talley Hultgren, ECW President, 2014

HOW TO PREPARE TO MAKE A UNITED THANK OFFERING

United Thank Offering (UTO) Blue Boxes will be handed out this Sunday, April 27 at the Cathedral. The blue boxes are an Episcopal tradition that parishioners take home as a reminder to recognize and name daily blessings, and then to make a small offering of thanks by dropping coins into the box.

You'll be asked to bring back the filled boxes on Sunday, May 11. They will be combined to create the Cathedral's UTO donation—small offerings joined together to do big things. In 2011, the national UTO offering—the combined offerings of every participating parish in every diocese in the United States—was $1,634,526.19, all of which was used for projects that address human needs and help alleviate poverty.

When you receive your box this Sunday, the ECW asks you to consider what role prayer can make in your personal blue box experience. Prayers of thanksgiving—when we recognize our many daily blessings—are an invitation to God to be present in preparing our hearts. If you have questions, please contact contact Katie Hughey at katiehughey@att.net.

Living This One Life Well

Over-scheduled. Over-committed. Over-functioning.

When we live our lives in overdrive, we lose our sense of self and direction. We think if we try harder to be better then we will find peace, contentment, and joy. Better is not the answer.

Busier is not the answer. Being everything to everyone is not the answer. There is another way. We can learn to free ourselves from the stress of our routines, our insecurities, and our anxieties, and start living this one life well.
