The Weekly Newsletter of the Cathedral of St. Philip, Serving Atlanta and the World

November 16, 2014

TO EVERYTHING THERE IS A SEASON – TURN, TURN, TURN

In Atlanta, it's amazing how All Saints Day marks the turning of a season. In our climate, at least, it seems that the weather turns brisk and the leaves turn crisp right at the beginning of November – All Saints Day in the Christian year. This year, of course, we turned our clocks back, too, and left Daylight Savings Time in the past. We turned into a new time!

The Cathedral of St. Philip, like all historic Christian churches, knows how to mark changing times, and especially this one. We know how to turn times. On All Saints Sunday morning, we baptized new Christians into a (contagious!) communion of saints. That afternoon, with the choir singing Vaughan Williams' Mass in G minor, we remembered by name those who had died in our wide community in the past year. On the following day, we welcomed the homeless into our cathedral for dinner and for a requiem Eucharist for those who died in the past year homeless in Atlanta. Voices of Hope, a women's prison choir, sang with us again.

At the same time that we were marking death and new life, our foliage was turning too. Leaves on our driveways needed sweeping every other day. Our temperatures reached frost stages. We wore winter coats in the early morning to work. When we drove back home, the evening was dark.

When Pete Seeger wrote his song, "To Everything There is a Season – Turn, Turn, Turn," and when the Byrds' recording of that song reached number one in the pop charts in 1965, it was proclaimed the number one pop song with the oldest lyrics ever! Of course, its lyrics come from the Book of Ecclesiastes:

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, a time to reap that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance."

Even when the autumn brings dark evenings and colder temperatures to our lives, when the world around us begins to look dark and gray, the Cathedral of St. Philip actually prepares to welcome fresh life. We know that, out of death and departure, come life and new arrivals.

So it is, soon, that the Cathedral will welcome new chapter members at our annual parish meeting on December 7. In fact, we will also celebrate a surprise that day – a fresh and new role for someone already among us. Many of us have been working steadily on calling a new priest to our canon staff, too. By the time of the annual parish meeting, we should be able to make public the call of a new Canon for Spirituality and Mission.

Lots of new things! To everything there is a season: turn, turn, turn. As our year turns into fall, and as we observe the communion of saints, we turn to a new season. We know that Christ is making all things new, even in the midst of what looks like death. Even as we begin to prepare for Thanksgiving, and Advent, and December, and Christmas itself in our personal lives, we realize that there will be new opportunities in these rather old and traditional holiday times. To everything there is a season. We turn into our next season with hope, and with joy!

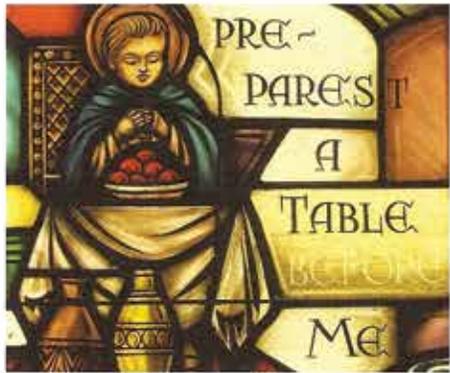

At the Dean's Forum this week, Dean Sam Candler welcomes 2015 Cathedral Antiques Show chairs Katherine Hill and Grace Foster along with representatives of the 2015 show beneficiary, Covenant House of Georgia. The Dean's Forum meets Sunday at 10:10 a.m. in Child Hall.

For God has destined us not for wrath
but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us.

From this week's lectionary
1 Thessalonians 5:9-10

ADULT CLASSES

These adult classes meet during the education hour, Sunday from 10:10-11 a.m.

THE DEAN'S FORUM

Child Hall

Dean Sam Candler welcomes 2015 Cathedral Antiques Show chairs Katherine Hill and Grace Foster along with representatives of the 2015 show beneficiary, Covenant House of Georgia.

OLD FASHIONED SUNDAY SCHOOL

Room 133

This term we'll look at the Lord's Prayer and ask what would it mean to really live into it and make it our own. We'll look at what the prayer says—the history, psychology, and theology of the words. There's a lot to learn here. But, we won't stop there. We'll look at why the prayer seems to speak so directly to us. What are we really asking God to do? And, what would we do if it actually happened? Join us. You'll learn about the Lord's Prayer, of course, but we hope that you will also deepen your own faith in the process. You'll find a light heart and a broad welcome. The class has been organized by Mack Leath. The sessions will be led by Canon George Maxwell, Canon Wallace Marsh, Mary Caroline Cravens, Barbara Pendergrast, and Jennifer Priestley.

GREEK CLASSES

Room 356

Beginning with the alphabet and pronunciation, the goal of the Beginning Biblical Greek class (Sundays at 10:10 a.m.) is to equip students to read selected New Testament texts in Greek utilizing various tools. No previous knowledge of Greek is required.

In the Continuing Biblical Greek class (Sundays at 1:15 p.m.), students will learn to translate from the original language of the scriptures. For more information, contact the Rev. Thee Smith, PhD (404-727-0636 or thee.smith@emory.edu) or go to stphilipscathedral.org/greek.

THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

Room 122

The Isaiah Bible study continues looking at the second and third sections of the book. From Isaiah, we'll move on to the book of Daniel—a collection of narratives and apocalypses. One of the themes of Daniel is the nature of royal or state power in relation to the sovereignty of God. For more information, please contact Jim Bingham (404-373-3273 or binghamjim@bellsouth.net) or Gordon Mathis (404-842-1595).

CATHEDRAL PRESCHOOL

REGISTRATION INFORMATION FOR NEW STUDENTS

Each year The Cathedral Preschool has a limited number of spots available for children who are not already enrolled. Registration for all children who are not currently enrolled will be done by mail.

If your child is not currently enrolled, but you would like for him/her to attend next fall, please fill out an information sheet and mail it, along with the non-refundable $25 application fee, to the preschool on or after Monday, November 17. (The information sheet can be found on the preschool's website: thecathedralpreschool.org. Checks should be made payable to The Cathedral Preschool.) Please note that information sheets received before November 17 will be returned to sender. Likewise, metered mail without a postal service dated cancellation will not be accepted.

If you are a member of the Cathedral of St. Philip, you must include proof of membership with the mailed information sheet. A proof of membership certificate may be obtained from the church registrar, Christie Jennison (404-365-1079).

After Monday, November 17 the information sheets received will be placed on a waiting list according to the appropriate age level in the order in which they are postmarked.

Waiting list priority will be in the following order:

1. Siblings of currently and previously enrolled students
2. Active, pledging members of the Cathedral of St. Philip, in good standing
3. Community (10% of remaining spaces will be reserved for this category)

After currently enrolled students complete their registration in December, the remaining openings will be filled from the names on that waiting list. A letter notifying you of your status will be mailed no later than the first week of February. If a child is accepted into the Preschool, the non-refundable registration fee of $125 and a registration contract must be received in the office no later than one week after acceptance to hold the position. If these items are not received, the next person on the waiting list will be notified, and the child's space will be released.

The Cathedral Preschool is a Cathedral parochial entity housed in the Cathedral of St. Philip for 45 years. Our longstanding relationship with the Cathedral is beneficial to both the preschool and the Cathedral. The Dean and Chapter have the responsibility to oversee the uses of the property and building, but daily operations and admissions' decisions are the responsibility of the preschool. We regret that due to our size and space limitations we are unable to accept all church members who apply.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN

UTO INGATHERING THIS SUNDAY

Remember to bring your filled Blue Boxes with you to church this Sunday, November 16 for the Cathedral's United Thank Offering (UTO) Sunday ingathering. It's not too late to prepare for UTO Sunday by giving thanks for all we are and through whom we all live. Each day, remind yourself of the blessings that surround you and prepare to make a United Thank Offering. Many families and individuals drop a coin in the Blue Box each time prayers of thanksgiving are offered. Boxes are available in the Atrium UTO is a ministry of the Episcopal Church that offers men, women, and children an opportunity to give. Since 1889 UTO has provided a way for Episcopalians to make a difference with the message of thanks-giving and self-giving. The discipline starts in parishioners' homes by dropping coins into a special container known as the Blue Box. Every cent collected by UTO is distributed by grants throughout the Episcopal Church.

The Work of Our Hands is a non-profit organization founded in 2000 by Bishop Frank K. Allan, retired bishop of the Diocese of Atlanta. A passionate believer in the spiritual benefits of rediscovering one's imagination and creative gifts, Bishop Allan sought to build an organization to support art-oriented programs throughout the metro Atlanta area. He and his wife Elizabeth conceived and developed the Artists' Market as a major source of funding for art programs as well as a showcase for the creative spirit that crosses all boundaries and walks of life.
