WELCOME, THE VERY REV. DERMOT DUNNE!

This Sunday, March 1, we welcome the Very Rev. Dermot P. M. Dunne to the Cathedral of St. Philip! Dunne is the Dean of Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin, Ireland. He will preach at the 8:45 and 11:15 a.m. services, and present a special Dean's Forum at 10:10 a.m. in Child Hall. He will be joined by the Rev. Canon Roy H. Byrne, precentor and sub-dean of Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin.

The Very Rev. Dermot Patrick Martin Dunne has served as the 35th Dean of Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin, since 2008. He leads one of Ireland's most historic and significant ecclesiastical foundations, a Cathedral that has stood at the heart of Dublin's spiritual and civic life since the 11th century and now approaches its millennium in 2028.

Dean Dunne is a native of Mallow, County Cork. Having completed his primary and secondary education, he was accepted by the bishop of Cloyne for training for ordination. He entered the Seminary at St. Patrick's College Maynooth in 1978 where he pursued qualifications in both Philosophy and Theology. Dean Dunne was ordained deacon in 1983 and Priest in 1984. His academic pursuits include diplomas in both philosophy and theology, a Bachelor of Arts degree from Dublin City University and a Masters degree in Applied Christian Spirituality from Dublin City University.

Dean Dunne served as a curate in the parish of Milford, County Cork for six years. In 1990 he was appointed as hospital chaplain to the Whittington Hospital, London and subsequently served in three parishes including: St. Mellitus Parish, Tollington Park, St. George's Cathedral Southwark and St. Mary's Church, Caduggan Street, Chelsea. Whilst in London Dean Dunne graduated as a psychotherapist from the Chiron Centre in Ealing, London. In 1995 dean Dunne stepped aside from active ministry and worked with the Environment Council London and the Safe Start Foundation, London.

On transferring his ministry to the Anglican Communion, in 1999 Dean Dunne became the Dean's Vicar of Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin. Having served his title there until 2001, Dean Dunne was appointed incumbent of the Crosspatrick and Carnew Group of parishes in County Wicklow. During his incumbency he was appointed Precentor of Ferns and subsequently Archdeacon of Ferns before his appointment as Dean of Christ Church Cathedral Dublin in 2008. Dean Dunne is married to Celia, daughter of James and Dorothy Burl late of Hemel Hempstead, Hertfordshire.

At Christ Church Cathedral, Dean Dunne champions worship rooted in the Anglican tradition, theological reflection, and community engagement. Under his leadership the Cathedral has maintained its rich liturgical and musical heritage while expanding its outreach across the city. The Cathedral is a living center of faith, culture, and service, attracting visitors from across Ireland and the world.

Dean Dunne is a committed advocate for ecumenical and inter-church engagement, fostering partnerships with other Christian traditions. Christ Church Cathedral has appointed ecumenical canons, including leaders from the Romanian Orthodox Church, reflecting the Cathedral's commitment to visible unity and dialogue across Christian communities.

He is also strongly engaged in global fellowship and cultural exchange. Dean Dunne has represented the Cathedral at international gatherings, including participation recently in a major cultural festival in India, where he delivered a keynote address focused on unity, harmony, and global belonging. The Cathedral has also supported charitable initiatives linked to India, reflecting a commitment to global justice and outreach.

Alongside his ecumenical and global work, Dean Dunne is attentive to social concerns, particularly homelessness and marginalized communities, emphasizing the Church's role in compassionate witness and practical support.

He and his wife, Celia, together continue to serve the life of the Cathedral and the wider Diocese of Dublin and Glendalough.

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS IN LENT

This Lent, spend Wednesday evenings with your Cathedral community. Through March 25, we'll start with dinner in Child Hall at 5:30 p.m., followed by a variety of options from 6–7 p.m. to nourish your soul and mind. Dinner will change each week. Adults are $15, and children's buttered noodles and applesauce are free. Registration and payment in advance online is preferred by Sunday each week so we can order food accurately. You can do this by the week or all at once. Walk-ups are welcome with cashless payment available onsite. Learn more and RSVP for dinner at cathedralATL.org/lentenseries.

HOLY SMALL TALK!

Child Hall

So much of what draws us to church is community in the name of God and shared faith—we love being together! Join us for small group discussions about wilderness, spiritual practices, temptation, and grace. Come once, come every time, just come and be together. Canon Ashley Carr leads this group with others.

WRITER'S GROUP

Room 240

If you enjoy writing and sharing what you've written with others, this group is for you! Whether it is a poem, letter, short story, novel or memoir, or maybe nonfiction or a cookbook, even a grocery shopping list for a unique menu, share your enjoyment of writing. Everyone will have their own primary project. The chief scribe will be parishioner Ken Brownlee.

FOR KIDS: JOURNEY WITH JESUS

Room 316

Children ages 3-5th grade will journey with Jesus into Jerusalem. We will hear the story of Jesus' arrival into the city as well as prepare banners that we will carry during the Palm Sunday parade on Sunday, March 29. Join us each week as we hear the story of Jesus' journey and prepare the way for his arrival.

THE CHOSEN: VIEWERS DISCUSSION GROUP

Lanier House. Please note this class starts at 5 p.m.

The Chosen series dramatizes Bible stories about Jesus and his first disciples. It's been energizing viewers worldwide, including our own Cathedral members for the past three years. Join us to view the next episode in our discussions. We bring snacks, and family and friends are also welcome. For questions, contact the Rev. Dr. Thee Smith at 404-365-1093 or tsmith@cathedralATL.org.

ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN

Walthour Library

What we believe about heaven, judgment, and resurrection is the grammar of the Christian life. It quietly governs what we think the world is for, how we understand justice and mercy, and why the life of faith matters. This five-week course examines how our resurrection hope shapes imagination, ethics, and daily life, asking what it means to live faithfully now if God intends not to abandon the world but to redeem and restore it. Join Canon David Boyd as we explore how Easter gives shape to Christian hope and practice.

THE YOUTH TUESDAY BIBLE STUDY WILL MEET ON WEDNESDAYS DURING LENT.

Ages 0-3: Nurturing Center is open.

STEWARDSHIP

LANIER HOUSE & CHILD HALL ELEVATORS TO BE UPDATED!

After decades of loyal (if sometimes bumpy) service, the elevators in the Lanier House and Child Hall will be renovated over the next several weeks. The Lanier House elevator work started earlier this week and the Child Hall elevator will start in around the beginning of April. While the elevator is renovated, it will be unavailable for service. It might also be a little noisy around the elevator while the technicians are working. We are working with individuals and groups impacted to relocate to other parts of the campus.

The update of the elevators includes new pumps and motors, updated lighting, replacement of interior and exterior finishes, and the latest safety updates available. The renovations are possible because of an allocation from the Cathedral Endowment. When complete, the elevators will be ready for a generation or more of service to the Cathedral. Please pardon the dust and look forward to sublime elevator experiences soon!

CATHEDRAL News

We are excited to announce a transition for Sara Craig-Goodell, who has faithfully served as Program Coordinator for Communications and Outreach since 2020. She will be working under Canon Julia Mitchener, in a newly created position as Program Coordinator for Outreach. She will fully support all things related to our outreach ministries, including communication, administrative tasks, research, networking and the Cathedral Towers Fund. This position is a reflection of the growth and need of our outreach partners, for which Sara was a natural fit!

With Sara's transition, we are seeking a skilled designer to serve as Communications Coordinator. In conjunction with the Director of Communications and ministry leaders, the coordinator plays a significant role in weekly, seasonal, and ad hoc communications of the Cathedral parish. Primary responsibilities include designing weekly print and email newsletters, and maintaining a robust website—all to serve the Gospel of Jesus Christ with grace, excellence, and hospitality. Find the full job description at cathedralATL.org/communications. Contact Dan Murphy, Director of Communications, dmurphy@cathedralATL.org, with any questions or interest.

GOING THERE: CONTEMPLATING DEATH TO INVIGORATE LIFE

Tuesdays, Beginning March 3

10 a.m., Room 368

Join Cathedral member and Conscious Dying Coach, Susan Patterson, in this small group course beginning March 3. Over the course of six two-hour sessions, participants will focus on five contemplation topics, participate in grounding exercises, and share personal insights in order to increase our comfort level with dying and death; increase our ability to envision the experiences and connections that bring deep meaning to our lives, and, create action steps to share our thoughts, wishes and plans with others. Limited to 8 participants. A fee of $150 covers all materials and Susan's leadership. Please direct questions to Susan or Canon David Boyd at david.boyd@cathedralATL.org. You can register at cathedralATL.org/goingthere.

RESILIENCE BEREAVEMENT WORKSHOP: DISCOVERING YOUR STRENGTH THROUGH GRIEF

Saturday, April 11

1:30–5:30 p.m., Child Hall

Please join Hospice Atlanta for their 4th annual RESILIENCE Bereavement Workshop on Saturday, April 11, 1:30–5:30 p.m. in Child Hall. This half-day event will help you discover the resilience within as you work through the grief of losing a loved one. The event features speakers sharing personal stories of resilience in grief, and loss-specific group breakout sessions facilitated by bereavement professionals.

This is a free event, open to all adults working through the death of a loved one. Pre-registration by April 4 is requested.

For questions and to register for Resilience 2026, contact Paulette Slawson, Bereavement Coordinator, Hospice Atlanta at 404-527-6558 or Paulette.Slawson@vnhs.org

SPIRITUALITY

LENTEN QUIET DAY

“I Will Put My Spirit Within You” — An Invitation to Heart's Rest and Restoration

Saturday, February 28, Lanier House

Lent offers us an opportunity for thoughtful reflection. Amid our daily lives, which for some are overwhelmingly busy and for others quietly lonely, Jesus is forever and deeply calling us to “Follow me.” It is an invitation to renewal, freedom and enduring connection. Join us for a Quiet Day in the Lanier House with opportunities to explore through scripture, icons, creativity and prayer, the themes of simplicity, the present moment, release of that which is dividing our hearts, and God's invitation to “sprinkle clean water upon us, to cleanse us and to put God's spirit within us” (Ezekiel 36:24-28). Register at cathedralATL.org/quietday.

The Quiet Day will be led by Barbara Pendergrast, long-time member of the Cathedral. She received an MDiv from Candler School of Theology at Emory and became commissioned and endorsed by the Episcopal Church, serving as a board-certified chaplain at Emory Saint Joseph's Hospital. Barbara also graduated from Shalem's spiritual guidance program in 2014 and offers in-person Spiritual Companionship in the Atlanta area.

SACRED PAUSE – A SPIRITUAL PRACTICE IN LENT

Mondays, through March 30

7-8 p.m., Cathedral

Be still and know that I am God. —Psalm 46:10

Silence is God's first language; everything else is a poor translation. —Thomas Keating

Looking for a spiritual practice during Lent? Join us Monday evenings from 7-8 p.m., February 23–March 30 in the St. Luke's Chapel (Andrews Transept of the Cathedral) where we will gather in silent community followed by brief readings and reflection.

Come early if you would like to learn more about the method of Centering Prayer, The Prayer of Consent. Facilitators, Wyman Davis and Sandra Carey will be available from 6:30-7 p.m. to answer questions and provide brief guidelines for the practice of Centering Prayer.

Note: We will not meet Monday, March 16 when all are invited to join our monthly Labyrinth Walk and Taize' Prayers instead.

CHILL ON THE HILL

APRIL 26

IN THE CATHEDRAL PARKING LOT

Join us Sunday, April 26 for an evening of singing and dancing. Dean Sam Candler will start the show, playing his favorite songs on the piano, and then The Placeholders will take the stage with rock, dance and party tunes.

BRING YOUR FRIENDS, YOUR DINNER, AND FAVORITE BEVERAGES AND JOIN THE FUN! WE HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!
