REFRESHING CHRISTIANITY IN GOOD FAITH!

by the Very Rev. Sam Candler, Dean of the Cathedral

This Sunday, September 20, 2026!

I am excited to begin a new series, a refreshed series, on what it means to be part of healthy Christianity in a new age! The series, to be presented in The Good Faith Chapel, at 10:10 a.m., is titled, “Refreshing Christianity in Good Faith.”

I hope to present values! I hope to present the values that nurture us, that guide us, that inspire us. But the values—in my presentation—are those of our tradition! A refreshing and healthy Christianity develops from our understanding and valuing of our ancient traditions. But our mission is to see and to live out those values in a new way.

This Sunday, I will present a preview of what is in store for us. It will be an introduction. And I will listen and respond to questions about where Christianity is, in this day and age.

Then, in turn, I will present the values. On Week 2, it will be the Bible. “What is the Value of the Bible!” I will discuss scripture, what it is, how we interpret it, how it defines us. I may even give some clues about how to read that amazing collection of sixty-six different books. (My sub-title here is: “The Bible as Conversation!”)

On Week 3, I will examine one of the more pressing theological questions in our time: “Is Jesus the Only Way?” My secondary title here is, “The Value of Good Faith, Wherever It Comes From.” But I present this issue, not using culture, but using the Bible itself. I will use the Bible itself to answer that question!

On Week 4, the theme will be, “What is the Value of History?” What is our Christian history, what brings us here? In particular, I will note the value of our church history, the Anglican Tradition. My secondary title here will be “The value of the Anglican Tradition, and the Value of Comprehensiveness (not the via media, but the Via Comprehensiva!)”

On Week 5, I will continue history, by discussing some of the particular heroes of our tradition. They might be Hilda of Whitby, Elizabeth 1, William White, and even the controversial William Porcher DuBose. And there will be others!

On Week 6, I will present leadership principles: “The Value of Spiritual Leadership Principles.” In particular here, I hope to use the grand story of Moses as our guide. But I will also lean on the insights of contemporary thinkers and leaders. And, inevitably, I will use some of my own meager experience!

As we continue (with some breaks), on Week 7 the subject will be “The Value of Community,” a study of “Jesus and All His Different Titles” (using the Gospel of John, chapter one). It is surely community which is our gift here at the Cathedral of St. Philip, but it is not random community; it is community based in our collective experience of Jesus Christ as Lord.

Future subjects (if there is time), will be: “The Value of Science.” Our particular tradition of Christianity appreciates and thrives on science! We might even look at several astronomers who worked in churches. Another subject will be “The Value of Poetry,” as we consider ways that poetry guides us into a different spiritual realm (John Donne and R.S. Thomas!)

Finally, if there is time, the series will conclude with “The Value of Contemplative Spirituality.” Here, of course (and throughout the series), we will not be limited to only Anglican saints. We learn from wisdom thinkers like Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and the present-day Richard Rohr. Some say that contemplative spirituality is the future of the church.

Oh my. This will be a fun series, and a fun way to inaugurate the use of our large vertical screens in the Good Faith Chapel. It will be a challenge! Those screens, and the Good Faith Chapel itself, are certainly features of a new world. But that space, and our community in that space, are built upon our solid Christianity! It is built upon our open and generous and traditional Christianity. Join us! Join us in the spirit of Good Faith!

Sam Candler

Cathedral CHAPTER

WE ARE ACCEPTING CANDIDATES FOR NOMINATION TO THE CATHEDRAL CHAPTER

The Chapter Nominating Committee has begun their work of assembling a slate of nominees for the 2027 Cathedral Chapter. They invite anyone in the parish to submit recommendations of qualified candidates.

As the governing body of the Cathedral, the Chapter determines policy issues and provides stewardship of the Cathedral's complex operations. Each month, the Chapter formally reviews the status of each of the Cathedral's parochial entities and ministries, and oversees parish financial statements. Unlike smaller parishes, the Cathedral Chapter does not usually get involved in the day-to-day activities of the Cathedral. In our large and complex system, the Chapter of the Cathedral operates as a board of trustees or board of stewards.

Each Chapter member serves a three-year term. Our Church By-laws allow for members to be: "Any communicant of the parish in good and regular standing, who is not less than eighteen years of age, a regular attendant in Cathedral worship in the year preceding election, and known by the treasurer to have made and maintained a stated financial commitment for church support in the year preceding election." (A "communicant" is a baptized member who has been confirmed.) The most important quality of an effective Chapter member is an ability to see the larger picture. Most have held leadership positions in more than one of the church's ministries or parochial entities.

After recommendations are given to the Nominating Committee, eligibility is verified and candidates are polled to confirm their interest and availability. The committee then chooses six strong candidates to send to the Chapter for approval. Finally, Chapter members are formally elected by the parish at the annual parish meeting in December.

The Nominating Committee reviews candidates who will round out the experience of the continuing Chapter members. We will seek to represent a broad range of age and gender groups, and a broad range of ministries and parochial entities of the Cathedral community.

Members of the committee include: Haven Long, Andrea Block, Michael Carrin, Mike Martin, Mary Perrin, Bronson Smith, and Daisy Starr.

Names of recommendations should be submitted along with a brief supporting statement to any Nominating Committee member or to the Office of the Dean, 404-365-1031, or jmahood@cathedralATL.org by October 19.

PARISH LIFE

GIVING THANKS FOR KAREN BUNN

Today we give thanks for Karen Bunn, a longtime member of the Cathedral and a talented organist, who is retiring after twenty-two years of faithful volunteer service as organist for the Santa Eucaristía service each Sunday morning. Over those years, Karen generously and lovingly became an integral part of the worship and the community of Santa Eucaristía. Not only that community, but all of us at St. Philip are grateful for her contribution to our worship and ministry. We have all experienced the beautiful spiritual gift that organ music brings to our worship, and we thank Karen for offering that gift, Sunday after Sunday, to an important community within our Cathedral. We are also glad to share that we have made alternate arrangements for the musical support of these services, so that the worship of the Santa Eucaristía community will continue to be richly accompanied. – The Rev. Canon George Maxwell

With leadership from Canon Salmoon Bashir, parishioner Susan Patterson, and members of the Funeral Guild, we will explore why you might want to plan your own funeral, discuss the decisions you can make, and experience an instructed liturgy. As a community, we will support one another in this deep and important reflection. Please direct questions and/or your desire to attend to Canon Bashir at sbashir@cathedralATL.org. Participation is free and open to adults of all ages.

STEWARDSHIP

WHY I GIVE

by parishioner Giovanna Epherson

I grew up at St. Matthew's, a small Episcopal church in Savannah, Georgia, where the congregation felt less like a membership and more like a family. I served as an acolyte, and my mother worked multiple jobs to make sure her two children had, not always what we wanted, but what we needed.

One of the joys of being an acolyte was the trips we took together. One year, that trip was skiing. Our family could not afford ski jackets or jumpsuits, or truthfully, the trip itself. But our rector, Father Charles L. Hoskins, believed it took a village to raise a child, and our congregation lived that belief every day. He told my mother that I would absolutely be on that trip. And I was.

As a child, I never understood how it happened. I only knew it was one of the most fun trips of my childhood, and it sparked a love of skiing that has stayed with me ever since. Looking back as an adult, I understand now. People gave. Quietly, unselfishly, and without asking for recognition, members of our church family made room for a kid whose mother was already giving everything she had.

That is why I give. Others gave to me expecting nothing in return, and I still remember the joy their generosity made possible. My hope is simple: that when I give, someone else, maybe a child who does not yet understand how it all happened, feels that same joy.
