THE FEAST OF ALL SAINTS

This weekend, we celebrate the Feast of All Saints! On All Saints' Day, Sunday, November 1, we will baptize new Christians at the 8:45 and 11:15 a.m services. Those individuals to be baptized are listed on page 2.

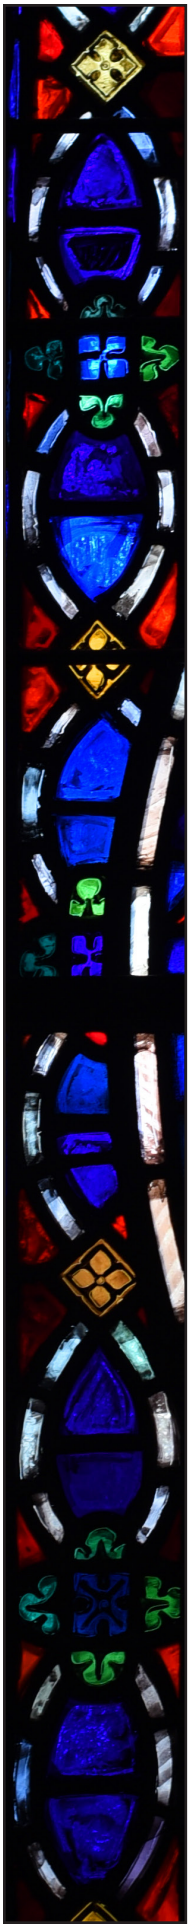

Later on Sunday, at 4:00 p.m., we will offer a Choral Requiem Eucharist in remembrance of members and friends of the Cathedral who have died during the past year. We pray for those individuals by name; they are listed on page 5. This service offers comfort and inspiration to all through sublime music and liturgy. The image-rich texts of the Requiem mass—the ancient Christian burial service—will be prayed this year using the music of the Requiem by Dan Locklair sung by the Cathedral Choir and accompanied by a string orchestra and organ. The Rev. Canon Julia Mitchener will preach, and the Very Rev. Sam Candler will celebrate.

Then on Monday, November 2, we will host a holy evening of remembrance and community at our 38th Annual Homeless Requiem. The Homeless Requiem is a service in memory of individuals who have died in the past year while unhoused. Buses will pick up guests—Atlantans currently experiencing homelessness—at various shelters and Woodruff Park, and bring them to the Cathedral where we and our service provider partners offer healthcare screenings, a foot clinic, clothing closet, a communal meal, and more. At 5:45 p.m. guests can enjoy the Choral Prelude by Atlanta Choral Artists, followed by the Requiem Service at 6:30 p.m. Participate in a ministry of presence by worshipping alongside our guests. The preacher this year will be the Rev. Trey Davis, Lower School Chaplain at Holy Innocents' Episcopal School, and the Very Rev. Sam Candler will celebrate. You can also donate or volunteer at cathedralATL.org/homelessrequiem.

Please pray with us for these saints, and for all the saints!

Join us on Sunday, November 1, as Dean Sam Candler continues Refreshing Christianity in Good Faith at 10:10 a.m. Dean Candler will present "The Value of History: Featuring the Anglican Saints and Heroes of Our Tradition!" in the Good Faith Chapel. See page 3 for more details.

TENEBRAE

November 10, 2026 7:30 PM

As one of the world's leading vocal ensembles, renowned for its passion and precision, we are thrilled to present this award-winning choir for its first concert ever in Atlanta. Under the direction of Nigel Short, Tenebrae performs at major festivals and venues across the globe and has enjoyed collaborations with some of the UK's leading orchestras, including the London Symphony Orchestra, the Academy of Ancient Music, and Britten Sinfonia. Having earned international acclaim for its interpretations of choral works from the Renaissance through to contemporary masterpieces and its commissions of new music, this is certain to be one of the most sublime musical events in Atlanta this season. Presented by Friends of Cathedral Music. Tickets: cathedralATL.org/concerts

RESPITE CARE ATLANTA

Free Dementia Caregiver Workshop at Respite Care Atlanta
Navigating the Holidays: Supporting Loved Ones with Dementia During the Holiday Season

Thursday, November 5, 10:30 a.m.–12:00 p.m.
Ryland Knight Room, Second-Ponce de Leon Baptist Church

Respite Care Atlanta invites caregivers, family members, and friends of those living with dementia to attend Navigating the Holidays: Supporting Loved Ones with Dementia During the Holiday Season, which is free and open to the community. Presented by the Alzheimer's Association, this workshop will explore ways to navigate holiday gatherings, prepare family and friends, adapt traditions, and meaningfully include loved ones living with dementia in seasonal celebrations. To register, email respitecareatlanta@spdl.org.

STEWARDSHIP

JOYFUL IN GOD'S HOUSE OF PRAYER

2027 Stewardship Campaign

Dear Friends and Fellow Parishioners,

Welcome Home! On Homecoming Sunday, Dean Candler welcomed us home to joy in God's house of prayer for all people. The Cathedral has been a home for many people, not only parishioners, but also vendors at the Peachtree Road Farmers Market, Garden Hills Elementary School children who participate in La Amistad, and voters in the surrounding Buckhead community. From Scouting to Cathedral Scholars to Giving by Design, the Cathedral is a place where all are welcome. At the Ministry Fair, you can see the many small groups that the Cathedral supports. These groups help the community, locally, regionally and internationally. Change touches all our lives from births to deaths, and we rely on the Cathedral not only to support us but to change with us. The Cathedral continues to renew itself as a house of prayer for all people, echoing the words of the prophet Isaiah: "My house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples" (Isaiah 56:7). That promise is alive in our worship, our ministries, and now in the Good Faith Chapel, completed in 2026.

Please support the Cathedral as a joyful house of prayer for all people by pledging to the 2027 annual fund this December. You can pledge with the cards in the pews, the cards mailed to your home, or online at cathedralATL.org/pledge. Come, give, volunteer, and join us for a service, including the 5:22 p.m. Sunday service in the Good Faith Chapel!

With love and thanks,

Virginia and Mike Martin

REFLECTING ON GOD'S GIFTS WITH GRATITUDE

This fall, we are invited to join the Global Episcopal Community in daily gratitude—reflecting on God's gifts and recognizing how small acts, like giving to the United Thank Offering (UTO), can make a lasting impact.

UTO giving isn't fundraising—it's a spiritual practice that honors God's blessings and supports transformative projects worldwide. Grants from parishes like St. Philip's have funded initiatives in sanitation, water access, education, and climate change mitigation. Funds from our November 15 Ingathering will support 2027 grants focused on connecting the unique gifts of the church/diocese/province with the unique needs of the community, surrounding the theme, "We are the gifts of God for the People of God."

Read about all grant recipients since 1883 at https://unitedthankoffering.com/granting/

Read about 2027 granting at https://unitedthankoffering.com/apply/

Take time this season to reflect, talk about gratitude with loved ones, and consider making a thank offering at cathedralATL.org/UTO or via the QR code.

APPLIED SUICIDE INTERVENTION SKILLS TRAINING

November 23–24, 8 a.m.–5 p.m., Lanier House

Whether at work, at home, with friends or teammates, or in more formal helping roles, many of us have been, or will be, called upon to respond to someone who is experiencing a mental-health crisis or considering suicide. The Cathedral hosts a two-day workshop in one of the world's leading suicide-intervention models, Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training (ASIST). ASIST teaches individuals to provide a skilled intervention to a person who may be having thoughts of suicide and develop a collaborative safety plan to keep them safe and alive. If you're interested, please register: cathedralATL.org/asist. This workshop is led by Mary Chase Mize and Katie Barrington. Contact Hillary Jones, hjones@cathedralATL.org, for more information.

ECW Fireside Fellowship

Thursday, November 5, 6:00p.m., Cloister Garden

This is our last ECW-wide gathering of 2026! Join us for a warm bowl of soup or chili, a beverage or snack, but most of all, cozy fellowship in the beautiful outdoor surroundings of the Cloister Garden. Bring a stadium chair to pull up to the fire (weather permitting, of course) and stay a while! No need to RSVP but grab a friend and bring a beverage or snack to share!
